DIVORCE MANAGEMENT: HOW TO MAKE IT AMICABLE
Industry Professionals Join Together to Help People Through the Life-changing and Expensive Divorce Process

Livonia, Michigan, February 19, 2008 —Divorce is a major life-changing event that creates emotional, family and financial turmoil. With proper pre-planning and attitude, it can be more amicable and less catastrophic. For this reason, Money Caretakers™ Forums has assembled five prominent professionals to present a panel discussion and community event on March 3, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. at the Livonia Civic Center Library Auditorium.

The event objective is to provide valuable divorce management information and help prevent worst case family situations. Most people don't know where to start, what to do, or who to call. Unfortunately, if emotions rule the process, it usually becomes much more expensive and more painful.

The presenters and organizers include:

- Eudora Adolph, Financial Growth Engineer, focused on financial and life strategic formulation, planning, and implementation
- Keith Ostrowski and Kimberly Denoyer, Divorce Attorneys who also offer mediation services
- Al Plecha, CPA, focused on tax implications
- Dr. Judith Margerum, Ph.D., Family Psychologist and Author, focused on family issues

Panel discussion topics will include:

Conflict and Anger Management: How to Get What You Want Without Fighting for It
A Divorce Preview: Pre-Planning the Financial and Life Issues Caused by Divorce
How Can We Afford a Divorce?
